LYRICS

“Piano Song”

Verse

You played your part today,
Come bow your way off stage,
My way,
Did the costume fit you right?
Blow all out of sight,
Someday,
And I don't mean to laugh,
Skin and bone and running last,
In my race,
Oh you should see,
My tumbling face.

Your football chocolate knees
Tarmacadem remedies,
Of a boy, who cares?
You never asked for much,
'Cept to get up off your luck,
And try to live.

Verse

And I know it's not the way,
You ever planned to play,
I want to know will I ever let it go,
Cos you know boys don't cry,
Hide the truth behind the lie,
Cos it's always much better to leave all this pain unsaid,
You said,

How can I live like this?
You said yeah you said.

Outro

You never, you never, you never, Want me.
You never, you never, you never, Want me.
You never, you never, you never, Want me.
You never, you never, you never, Want me.
You never, you never, you never, Want me.
You never, you never, you never, Want me.
